

Meetings and Conferences

The Wallace Collection offers breakfast meetings, perfect for networking opportunities, lectures and presentations. Later on in the day, the Wallace Collection's Meeting Room offers a sanctuary in the heart of the museum, perfect for away days with your team. Retire to the glazed Courtyard and recently refurbished Lecture Theatre for a striking and professional setting. Your delegates will also have the opportunity to explore areas of the museum before it's open to the public for the day.

The Wallace Collection

Situated in the heart of London, the Wallace Collection on Manchester Square is considered to be one of the best collections of fine arts in the UK. The Wallace Collection provides a spectacular setting for corporate and private entertaining within opulent galleries and the elegant glazed Courtyard. The Wallace Collection is available for a variety of corporate and private events, from intimate dinners for 20 guests to grand receptions for 300 delegates.

Special Events

The leafy setting of the glazed Courtyard in the centre of the museum can be used for drinks receptions and award ceremonies all year round. Meanwhile, in the Drawing Rooms, the newly refurbished suite showcases the museum's world-famous collection of 18th Century French art, and is perfect for drinks receptions. To enhance your evening a private view of the Ground Floor Galleries or Drawing Rooms Suite can be arranged.
