

To celebrate the National Gallery's latest exhibition: Mantegna and Bellini, we have created a limited edition menu focussing on the food of the Veneto region.

A tale of two artists, Mantegna and Bellini tells a story of art, family, rivalry, and personality. Following their respective careers in Padua and Venice, Mantegna and Bellini is a once in a lifetime opportunity to see rare loans of paintings and drawings from around the world in London by two of the most influential artists of the Renaissance.

Available for lunch 12.00–3.00pm and pre-theatre dinner 5.30pm–7.30pm.
